ART EXHIBIT

You have no doubt noticed the original paintings hanging in the hallway of the new addition. These art works have been created by Trudi Remund, Claire Stahl, Vel Yard and Grace Galvin. Some have asked if these paintings are for sale, and the answer is, “Yes”. Some paintings can be purchased, and the artist will donate 20% of each sale to the church general fund. If you are interested in making a purchase, please contact Trudi (507-213-9242) or Grace (835-8724).

Current paintings will be on exhibit for several months. Future art shows will include photography exhibits, children's art shows, and guest artists. If you are interested in participating in future exhibits, please contact Grace Galvin.

GRIEF MINISTRY

One of the ministries of the Congregational Care Commission is that of Grief Ministry. When a funeral is held in our church, or when one of our pastors officiates at a funeral in another church, a series of comforting booklets is sent to the family of the deceased, at various intervals throughout the following year. Kay Anderson is the chairman of this ministry, and she has added a gift of a prayer shawl to go along with the booklets. Kay, along with Dottie Salsbury, have been knitting these shawls, and as they knit they pray for the one who will receive it.

A few individuals have donated yarn and money to purchase materials, but Kay and Dottie could use help with the knitting. If there are any men, women or children who can assist with this project, please contact Kay at 835-3637. Monetary gifts or donations of yarn would also be helpful.

A heart for God and you

February 2013 Volume 11, Issue 2

the Pulse: Thoughts from the Heart.

by: Pastor Zach Marino

Sometimes you need to get back to the basics. In 2013, maybe you are wanting to make some resolutions. What if you promised to get back to the basics of who God is? That's what I needed. God knew I needed to be reminded of who He is. He has been taking me on a journey through scripture showing me many of his different character traits. I bring all this up because as the new year rolls around, it's time believers get serious with God. Here's what I challenge you with:

As the New Year approaches, I challenge you to sit down and ask God what He wants you to learn about him in 2013. Give God 30 minutes of your time daily and see where He takes you; see what character trait He reveals to you. Pray and listen for what traits God may be laying on your heart. Once you sense a trait resurfacing, start looking up scripture references that speak about that trait. Write them down, process what all the verses have in common and maybe God will even allow you to take something away to apply to your life. It's been life-changing for me and I challenge you to put yourself before God and see what happens! There's not a better New Years Resolution to make than to willfully give the God of creation time to reveal himself to you.

So, I promise to press on in my Character study of God. Will you join me?

Journeying with God,
<Pastor Zach>

Christ Community Church Mission Statement

As a local body of believers, we will seek to glorify God in worship, in evangelizing the unsaved and in teaching Christians to obey everything Christ commanded. To that end, prayer will be our foremost task, Scripture will be our authority, God's Holy Spirit will be our source of power and love will be our motivation.
