QUENCH YOUR THIRST

Grace Galvin, Co-Director
Thirst Conference

When I was a kid, many churches held revival meetings each spring. Just as spring brought new life to the world or nature, so were our souls challenged to spring to new, revived lives. Meetings were held every night for a week or two, either in churches or in large tents that were pitched for the sole purpose of bringing revival to hungry souls. Guest evangelists often were invited to deliver fiery sermons. I have to say that oftentimes God used these meetings to wake us up and set a little fire in our souls.

Ove the years this approach has pretty much faded away, but the need for revival in our souls still remains—perhaps more now than ever before. “Everyone of us has a THIRST that goes beyond the physical realms. We long for spiritual refreshment, for the purpose of God in our lives, and for the rich relationship with Jesus we were created to enjoy.”* Our modern day culture has tricked us into trying to quench our THIRST with the wrong things. Our THIRST for a relationship with Jesus has often been choked out by meaningless philosophies that don't satisfy.

With that in mind, Christ Community Church is hosting the Thirst Revival Conference May 8-11. A team of 22 people from around America will be coming to our church to lead us in four days of meetings set apart where we can revisit our love for God, refresh our faith in Him, and restore the vision of our soul.

We wish to make a video celebrating 20 years of our Christmas Candlelight Dinner. The video will be shown at the dinner this year. If you have any photos of past Celebrate The Gift dinners to share, please put your name & date (year) on the back of the picture, place it in an envelope & put it in the box that will be at the Info Booth. We will return the photos to you. Thanks in advance.

The meeting will include reverent worship, high-energy children's programs, a women's luncheon (Tuesday noon), special teen sessions, practical teaching from God's word, and a concentrated time to seek God. The THIRST team will provide the music.

Beginning April 3, a table will be set-up in the foyer that will give you more information and the opportunity to sign-up for various activities. Please set aside these four days for a life changing experience.
