“Let's Praise God!”

Associate Pastor of Ministry Advancement & Adult Ministries

Howard Lundeen

Recently we as a church have been experiencing a very busy, but wonderful, time. Just yesterday, we voted to call Rick Wulf to be our new pastor of Worship and Student Ministries. Also, the Thirst Conference, May 8-11, was fantastic! I am extremely excited about what God is doing amongst us and the direction He is leading. We have so much to praise Him for!

The blessing that Rick and his family are coming to Waseca is a tremendous reason for praise! However, even more exciting is the fact that we have a God who faithfully responds to the prayers of his people. Just this morning I was impressed how in Acts, Chapter 10, Cornelius was described as a devout and God-fearing man because he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. It was when he was praying that God sent an angel to speak to him. The angel told Cornelius that God had heard his prayer and that he should send for Peter. As men were on their way to get Peter, Peter went up to the roof to pray and during that time God spoke to him telling him he should go to Caesarea. God clearly led these men together through prayer. Similarly, I know that during our entire pastoral search process the committee and we as a church were praying. And I'm convinced that God responded to these prayers by speaking both to the Search Committee and to Pastor Rick and Jill to bring them together. Praise God for graciously answering prayer!

Likewise, as special as the Thirst Conference was for everyone who attended, even more fantastic is the manner in which God responded to the prayers of all who were praying for the conference. I truly believe that the reason we realized the powerful presence of God's Spirit among us was because we as God's children were seeking Him and his blessing through fervent prayer. It seems evident that God wants to pour out blessings beyond what we can imagine. Consequently, as we move on from the Thirst Conference, let's continue to faithfully ask for an amazing outpouring of His Spirit on us, our church and our community. Could we have a greater blessing or honor than that of introducing people to Jesus Christ and salvation through Him? Praise God for His blessing upon the conference, and for the high calling of representing Him in this world! And, as we approach this exciting challenge, let us lean heavily into God through prayer. We can already praise Him for what He will do through the powerful working of His Spirit!!

Seeking to know God & make Him known,
